

SCHOOL OF FAMILY AND CONSUMER STUDIES
MINOR IN GERONTOLOGY (GRN9)
Catalog Years 2003-2007

	Cr. Hrs.	Total
Take all three:		9
GERO 14029      Introduction to Gerontology	3
GERO 3/44030    Adult Development and Aging	3
GERO 44031      Social Policy and Community Resources for Older Adults	3
 Select three:		 8-9
BSCI 40020*      Biology of Aging	3
RPTM/LEST 36010 Recreation, Leisure, and Aging	3
NURS 31095      Health Care, Policy and Delivery Systems	3
NUTR 23511      Nutrition Related to Health	3 or
NUTR 33512      Nutrition	3
PHIL 40005      Health Care Ethics	3
SP&A 44130      Communication Disorders of the Aging	2
 Guided Electives:		 7-8
Any course not chosen above may be a guided elective as well as the following:
ARCH 45640      Environment-Older Adults	1-3
EDPF 42150      Ed Dim-Leisure & Retire & Age	3
HDFS 24011      Interpersonal Relationships & Families	3
HDFS 44021      Family Intervention Across the Lifespan	3
HDFS 44023      Building Family Strengths	3
HED 34060      Small Group Processes	2	(for CY 05 & beyond)
HED 3/46070      Health Related Aspects of Aging	3	(for CY 03 & 04)
HED 42041      Health Counseling	3
HED 46060      Death Education	3
JMC 28001      Principals of Public Relations	3
M&IS 24163      Principles of Management	3
NUTR 43521      Food Choices for Prescribed Dietary Modifications	2
SOC 42010      Death and Dying	3
SOC 42870      Interdisciplinary Seminar in Social Gerontology	3
(SWK 44111 & 44211 for CY prior to '06 also acceptable)		<hr/>
TOTAL HOURS IN MINOR		24-26

Minimum 2.25 GPA in the minor required for graduation.

Any student who meets the requirements for the minor in Gerontology is automatically eligible for the Certificate in Gerontology, which is issued by the School of Family and Consumer Studies.

*Chemistry 10050 and 10052 and BSCI 20020 are prerequisites for this course.